

Maxwell Museum
of Anthropology

MMIWG2S AWARENESS DAY

TUESDAY, MAY 5TH, 2026

10 AM – 4 PM

Remembrance Ceremony at 12 PM

Maxwell Courtyard

In honor of Missing and Murdered
Indigenous Women, Girls, and 2-
Spirit Individuals (MMIWG2S)
Awareness Day

Please join us for a day of remembrance and awareness, including information on the MMIWG2S crisis in New Mexico and resources for families of the missing; speak with Detectives Ida Lopez and Gerry Roach from the APD Cold Case Unit; hear about the OMI Missing and Unidentified Human Remains (MUHR) Program grant, their successes, and review open forensic cases; donate a family reference sample or find out more about the New Mexico DNA Identification System (Michelle Graham).

Community art project to engage with the thoughts, feelings, and emotions of the reality of MMIWG2S

Remembrance Ceremony for those missing and/or murdered, those identified, and those waiting to return home.

